

Championship Hosting Guidelines

Criteria for Hosting International 2.4mR Class Association World Championships or a Continental Championship

The following is the minimum expectations, of the International 2.4mR Class Association, for bidding nations to host the World Championships or a Continental Championship. The organizing committee of the World Championships or a Continental Championship shall provide the following.

1. Sailing venue.
2. Race area close to venue.
3. Sufficient space for trailers and containers.
4. Dock space for 100 total boats. Dock space with wheelchair accessibility.
5. Parking for cars, trailers, campers, etc.
6. Room to moor at least 10 coach boats.
7. Race Committee shall have sufficient experience to manage the Championships.
8. Shall provide an International Jury as outline in ISAF RRS.
9. Shall provide at least 1 official measurer knowledgeable measuring 2.4mR sails and equipment.
10. Spectator boat(s).
11. At least 5 rescue boats. One boat with a high capacity pump is desirable.
12. Provide number of cranes or hoists available for boat logistics.
13. Provide site access and crane availability 5 days prior to start of the Championships.
14. Sufficient number of volunteers.
15. Website construction shall be online and available 6 months prior to the first day of measurement.
16. Website construction that shall provide at a minimum:
 - a. Hotel and restaurant information.
 - b. Availability of camping sites at or near venue.
 - c. Online registration.
 - d. Maps and driving directions.
 - e. Daily update of results.
 - f. Contact information of host organization.
17. Budget.
18. Event insurance.
19. Social events.
20. Publicity and promotion (media involvement).

21. Daily prizes.
22. Championship prizes and trophies as specified in the International 2.4mR Class Association Race Management Manual.

The following would be nice to have as part of the World Championships or a Continental Championship, but it is not required.

1. Product sales for the International 2.4mR Class Association
2. Wireless computer connectivity.
3. Transportation to and from airport.
4. Special arrangements and discounts with ferries.
5. Special arrangements and discounts with area hotels.
6. Photography and video of event to include racing and social events.
7. Tourist information of host city listed on website.